For Tax Year 2022

Dear Business Client;

This organizer is for the tax year 2022. Please use it as a guide in gathering together your 2022 tax information. Bring it with you to your interview or include it when you drop off or mail in the information. If you need more room than this organizer offers, feel free to use your own worksheets.

If we prepare the books for your company we may have most or all of the information we need to prepare your companies tax return. Please look over the enclosed sheets to see if there is information that you may not provide to us.

In compiling the information for your 2022 tax preparation, please review your return from 2021. Please make sure that the name spellings and addresses are correct.

For those of you that are responsible for an S Corp (1120S) or Partnership (1065) tax return, it is due March 15th.

For those of you that are responsible for a Corporate (1120) tax return, it is due April 18th.

Business returns that have qualified extensions are due by September 15, 2023. The penalties for not filing business returns on time are severe. Please make sure you file the return or an extension on time.

We can no longer file an automatic extension for your company. You must contact our office and let us know you need to file an extension.

LLC's may be listed on your personal return as a Schedule C or Schedule E and are due with your personal tax return. LLC's may however be treated as a corporation or a partnership for Internal Revenue Service purposes. Make sure you know which one you are required to file.

Being well organized is one way to help keep your fee lower. Taking the time to completely fill out the organizer ultimately saves you money, not only in your fee but on your tax return.

We would all like to thank you for your trust in our services and for your continued patronage. We hope that this New Year will be good to you and your loved ones.

Yours truly,

Gordon, Cathy, Jim, Jaimie, Regina
